Yanks Love Our Ribs

"We need to impress the yanks from head office, and also their corporate clients, but the function is this week!" Carol said. "No worries" said Jeff. "Leave it to us and if we don't impress, then you don't pay us." Jim our head chef put in extra work to make it special. When we were asked what's on our menu, we told them ribs, wings and other things. Did the American boys rave about our food? you bet! Mike from LA said that they were the juiciest ribs he's ever had. Owen from Texas said that he thought our wings were Emu wings they were so big, and with hot potatoes, corn, 6 fresh salads, bread rolls and tropical fresh fruit platters, they all agreed it was great value for only $12.95. If you have some big boys to impress, then give us a call and we will see what Roman can make for you.

City to Surf 13th August

Imagine 100,000 people storming down the hill to get a sausage on a roll, with fried onion or a big juicy hamburger with the lot. That's how it seemed to our staff when they looked up from the BBQ'S. Some people say they broke the race record just to get the food. What a great day it was, Sydney Water holds the record for the most food eaten, just beating Bonds Spinning Division. Each year we get more and more bookings for this great event. Why not organise a team from your company this year?

The Tax Mans Shout

Don't let the tax man put a bite on your party why not show the boss and organise a party today

Under the Income Tax Assessment Act, you can provide morning tea, breakfast lunch and dinner to employees at anytime and claim a tax deduction on the expense this includes hot and cold meals and may even include alcohol. The best way to avoid FBT on entertainment is to hold your parties (staff birthdays, farewells, retirements, product launches, Xmas parties) in-house as long as the food and drink does not exceed $100 per head. Under these provisions, you can call your favourite caterer All Suburbs Catering and have meals delivered to the in-house dining area rather than have employees leave the site and have to pay for their lunches each day using their hard earned after tax dollars.

So why not book that team building breakfast, lunch time seminar, product launch or Xmas party today!
